Chinese claim of Arunachal Pradesh

†247. SHRI RAJ MOHINDER SINGH MAJITHA:
DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that China has recently reasserted its claim on Arunachal Pradesh;

(b) the details thereof and when the claim was asserted last; and

(c) the details of concrete action taken to repudiate this claim and when it was taken?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) to (c) China illegally claims approximately 90,000 square kilometres of Indian territory in the State of Arunachal Pradesh. The Chinese side raised the matter again after Prime Minister's visit to Arunachal Pradesh in January 2008. The fact that Arunachal Pradesh is an integral part of India has been reiterated by Government to the Chinese side.

Repatriation from Bangladesh

248. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA:
SHRI GIREESH KUMAR SANGHI:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government is aware of the procedural delay on the part of Indian High Commission in Dhaka and the Minister of External Affairs, taking more than fifteen months to coordinate repatriation of an unfortunate sixteen year old Indian girl who, five years ago, innocently crossed Indo-Bangladesh border;

(b) if so, the cost of air ticket for Dhaka-Delhi sector being denied initially and only through Court's intervention the cost was reimbursed after her landing in India; and

(c) the reasons for adopting such an attitude in a humanitarian case?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) to (c) It is presumed that the reference is to Ms. Salma who was repatriated from Bangladesh to India in December 2007. The High Commission of India in Dhaka had rendered all possible assistance in this case. The Bangladesh Government granted consular access in September 2007, after which the Mission assisted in her repatriation in December 2007, after Ms. Salma recovered from an illness, through an air ticket arranged by an NGO.
